Smart and Skilled consumer protection
Consumers play an important role in promoting quality training. The Smart and Skilled Quality Framework includes measures for students and potential students (consumers) to ensure that they are well informed of their rights and given a clear avenue for complaint. Information on consumer rights and obligations relation to Smart and Skilled is available on the Smart and Skilled website https://smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/ Consumers may also make enquiries to the Customer Support Centre.

Consumers must first make their complaint to the Registered Training Organisation. BCA National will follow our complaints and appeals process as outlined above in all instances a complaint is made by a Smart and Skilled consumer and have identified the National Training Manager as the dedicated consumer protection officer (rachel.burke@bcanational.com 1300 69 35 65).

Students are required to sign a Learner Agreement prior to their first training session which outlines consumer rights and obligations and BCA National’s obligations in relation to consumer protection.

A documented consumer protection system is available on our website as per our complaints and appeals processes documents.
